

Jeff Jackson
Planned2Give

Jeff Jackson is a 15 year Dayton resident, from Cincinnati, OH. Jeff is the co-founder of Planned2Give, a non-profit organization that supports other local non-profits, our mission is to create and execute high profile special events that raise awareness and funds for local non-profit organizations. Jeff also is a sales and marketing consultant for The Greene in Beavercreek. Jeff's love of competition and basketball has recently brought him back to coaching, currently coaching a great group of young men from Oakwood Junior High. Although Jeff has retired from playing basketball himself, he tries to stay somewhat active competition in men's and co-ed volleyball leagues. Jeff is married to his "Falcon Flame," Dr. Jennifer Jackson, whom he met at Bowling Green State University on June 8, 1993. Jeff is quite sure he hasn't danced since his days at Bowling Green, but he is proud and excited to help A Special Wish Foundation raise money and awareness to continue their cause in the Miami Valley area.

